

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-1865

Springfield, Illinois & 2009

Pat Mullenix, Past National President, carries the National DUVCW Flag in the Honor Guard on April 15th. Sons of Union Veterans form a regimental entry on April 18th at ceremonies held at Oak Ridge Cemetery, in remembrance of the 16th President, Abraham Lincoln.

DUVCW National Headquarters and Museum on an open-house day, April 19, 2009. The new, 507 South Walnut, historic preservation house, is being readied to receive some of the Civil War collection held in the current National Headquarters and Museum, seen in the background.

Judy Frohm, DUVCW National President, presented the National Department Wreath. Mr. Lincoln's nose shines from the hands of many visitors who see it as a touchpoint to the man and the blessing that came to the nation through him.

Inside, a sample of the natural woods and details in this built-in hutch with a pass through to a well furnished, modern kitchen.

The Board of Trustees spent some time cleaning and polishing, along with planning the use of spaces for the research library, meeting rooms and displays.

Ruth Funck, DUVCW Past National President, top row left, and Judy Frohm, bottom row right, are among other representatives of many Civil War heritage groups, commemorating the 144th anniversary of the death of President Lincoln.